Palm Sunday

The city of Jerusalem was in a very busy and excited state. It was almost time for the Passover Celebration, and this was a very important holiday for the Jewish people. During this festival, they would take special time to remember how God had delivered the Israelites from death and slavery thousands of years ago.

This was also a very important holiday for Jesus and his disciples and they decided to travel to Jerusalem during this special time. Jesus borrowed a small donkey to ride during this trip, and when the crowds of people in Jerusalem heard that Jesus was coming their way, they ran out to meet him. Jesus had performed many amazing miracles and the crowd was eager to see this man who had healed the sick and even raised the dead!

Many people cut palm branches from the trees and waited along the path for Jesus to pass by so that they could wave the branches as he went by. "Hosanna!" they cried, "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!" The people were excited and celebrating - giving Jesus a king's welcome.
